

Technical Machine Operator* *

Together with us in Ellesmere Port

Reference number: 2024-965

Your responsibilities

- As a technical machine operator, you will be responsible for ensuring that our modern corrugator machines maintain production capability and deliver products of the right quality and quantity
- You will be responsible for overseeing correct operation and control of our corrugator machines and will operate them smoothly
- You will assist with maintenance, repairs and cleaning and help to rectify any faults
- You will comply with regulations on environmental protection and occupational safety and promote these standards
- You will actively help to achieve the corporate goals and ensure that the performance indicators for your area of responsibility are met

Your profile

- You will have successfully completed technical training
- You will have experience of working in production in an industrial company
- You will be highly committed and be able to work independently with a focus on meeting targets
- You will ideally have a valid licence to drive forklift trucks
- You will be willing to work shifts

Do you want to work with us to make Progroup even more successful?

Then get in touch with Frances Jane Trousdale

Progroup AG | Horstring 12 | 76829 Landau

* We promote diversity and reject any form of discrimination. All that matters is that we are a good match.

Apply now: jobs.progroup.ag